THE Penang Gazeette says :- The young man who lately took it into his head to elope with a day scholar of St. George's Girls' School, has on the representation of the Rev. Mr Biggs, Colonial Chaplain, who had inquired into the circumstances of the case, been called upon by the Government to resign his appointment in the Public Works Department, P. W., and upon his refusing to do so, has been suspended. We understand that the young man is likely to be prosecuted for seducing the girl, who is a minor.

An audacious member of the Kolao Hui has for some time been so journing in Amoy and making his living by selling medicines and giving pagilistic exhibitions. He has all along been passing himself off in the army. The other day he adorned hunself with a blue button and a peecock's whore he asked for a lost. The Colonel not knowing his visitor's true character, of course received him, but later on a deputy who entertained suspicions of the quasi man of rank went out to gather information regarding him, and it was found that he was an impostor. BOXING TOURNAMENT.

Yesterday evening a very successful Boxing Tournament was brought off in the Kowloon Hotel. There was a large attendance and no one had any cause to grumble at lack of sport.
